

KHARESIYA BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED

(OFFICIAL EMAIL COMMUNICATION SOP)

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE (SOP)

OFFICIAL EMAIL COMMUNICATION POLICY

SOP Owner: Human Resources Department

Policy Custodian: Founder & CEO / HR Head

Review Frequency: Annually or earlier if required by business, legal, or compliance needs.

Document Version: 1.0

Effective Date: __01-07-2026__

Applies To: All Employees, Consultants, Interns, Vendors and Business Associates using official company email.

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this SOP is to establish a professional, efficient, secure, and legally compliant email communication standard across Kharesiya Brands.

This policy aims to:

- Improve communication efficiency.
- Reduce unnecessary emails.
- Ensure proper accountability.
- Avoid information leakage.
- Maintain professional records.
- Protect confidential information.
- Improve decision-making speed.

Every email sent from an official company email ID represents Kharesiya Brands and shall be treated as an official business communication.

2. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Every employee shall ensure that every email is:

- Necessary
- Professional
- Relevant
- Concise
- Accurate

KHARESIYA BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED

(OFFICIAL EMAIL COMMUNICATION SOP)

- Action-oriented
- Free from emotional language
- Grammatically correct

Never send an email simply because "everyone else was marked."

3. WHO SHOULD BE IN "TO"

The "TO" field is reserved ONLY for people who are expected to perform an action or make a decision.

Examples:

- ✓ Approve
- ✓ Reply
- ✓ Provide data
- ✓ Submit documents
- ✓ Take ownership
- ✓ Complete assigned work

Rule:

If someone is expected to respond, they belong in TO.

4. WHO SHOULD BE IN "CC"

CC means "For Information Only."

People in CC are NOT expected to reply unless specifically requested.

Examples:

- Department Head
- Reporting Manager
- Stakeholders
- Project Members
- Finance (if payment update)
- Legal (if contract update)

Never put someone in CC merely because they are senior.

5. WHO SHOULD NEVER BE IN CC

Do NOT CC:

- Founder
 - CEO
 - CXO

KHARESIYA BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED

(OFFICIAL EMAIL COMMUNICATION SOP)

- Directors
- HR
- Finance
- Legal
- Other departments

Unless they genuinely need visibility.

Visibility is not a reason.

Need-to-know is the reason.

6. WHO SHOULD BE IN BCC

BCC shall be used only in exceptional situations.

Examples:

- Bulk customer communication
- Vendor circulars
- Confidential announcements
- Privacy protection
- Compliance communications

BCC shall never be used for internal politics or hidden monitoring.

7. REMOVE UNNECESSARY RECIPIENTS

Before clicking Send, ask:

Does this person need to:

- Take action?
- Approve?
- Know this information?

If the answer is NO,

REMOVE THEM.

Unnecessary emails waste organizational time.

Every employee is responsible for cleaning recipient lists before sending emails.

8. IF YOU RECEIVE AN EMAIL WHERE YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED

If you believe you have been unnecessarily copied,

Reply politely:

KHARESIYA BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED

(OFFICIAL EMAIL COMMUNICATION SOP)

"I believe this matter does not require my involvement. Kindly remove me from further communication unless my inputs are required."

This keeps communication efficient.

9. SUBJECT LINE FORMAT

Every email shall have a meaningful subject.

Good Examples:

Purchase Order Approval – Vendor ABC – July 2026

Artwork Approval Required – OYOBABY Baby Wipes

Payment Confirmation – Invoice 4521

Urgent Stock Requirement – Amazon FC

Contract Review – Logistics Agreement

Avoid:

23. EMAIL OWNERSHIP

The sender owns the communication until closure.

Sending an email does not transfer responsibility.

The sender shall ensure:

Follow-up

Resolution

Closure

Documentation

24. EMAIL RETENTION

Official emails constitute company records.

Employees shall not delete important business emails without following company retention policies.

25. PROHIBITED PRACTICES

Employees shall not:

- Mark unnecessary people.
 - CC senior management for pressure.
 - Use Reply All unnecessarily.
 - Send confidential data to unauthorized persons.
 - Use personal email IDs for official business without approval.
 - Forward internal emails externally without authorization.
 - Share customer or vendor information without permission.
 - Send offensive, discriminatory or defamatory content.
 - Conceal recipients using BCC for internal communications except where specifically approved.

KHARESIYA BRANDS PRIVATE LIMITED

(OFFICIAL EMAIL COMMUNICATION SOP)

26. MANAGER RESPONSIBILITY

Managers shall:

Review recipient discipline.

Educate team members.

Remove unnecessary stakeholders.

Maintain concise communication.

Promote accountability.

27. NON-COMPLIANCE

Repeated violation of this SOP may result in:

Verbal warning

Written warning

Performance observation

Disciplinary action

Other action as deemed appropriate by management depending upon severity.

28. GOLDEN RULES

1. Only mark people who are genuinely required.
 2. TO = Action.
 3. CC = Information.
 4. BCC = Privacy.
 5. Remove unnecessary recipients before sending.
 6. One subject per email.
 7. Be concise.
 8. Be professional.
 9. Never write emotionally.
 10. Think before clicking "Reply All."
 11. Protect confidential information.
 12. Every email creates a permanent business record.
